ABOUT ME

I'm a Social Media Ads Analyst with hands-on experience in running and optimizing paid campaigns across platforms like Meta, Google Ads, and LinkedIn. I focus on data-driven strategies to generate quality leads, improve ROAS, and scale budgets efficiently. Over time, I've built a strong understanding of audience behavior, funnel performance, and what actually drives conversions. I'm comfortable working in fast paced environments and always keep testing and learning at the center of my approach. I enjoy working with teams where ideas are shared openly and everyone is focused on results.
